

THREE ARRESTED FOLLOWING UNDERCOVER INVESTIGATION

On October 5, agents with the Appalachian Drug Task Force and deputies with the Towns County Sheriff's Office conducted a search warrant at a residence on Gum Log road in western Towns County. The search warrant was the result of a three-month undercover investigation, during which agents with the ADTF conducted several undercover purchases from two male subjects and one female subject.

During the search, authorities located marijuana, scales, and ammunition and magazines for a .45 cal. handgun.

Latasha Darlene Beavers (23) and Sedale Lamonze Shannon (28) were charged with Possession of Marijuana and Distribution of Marijuana. Eddie Raven Parks (30) was charged with three counts of Distribution of Marijuana and one count of Possession of Marijuana. All subjects listed at a Young Harris address.
